

Bellevue Restaurant

Nestled in the picturesque Outeniqua Mountain Range, you'll discover the quaint farm village known as Kleinvlei. This charming settlement, named for its lush wetlands, became a part of the 4200-hectare Botlierskop Game Reserve in 2016. Kleinvlei is situated on the northern edge of the reserve, in close proximity to Friemersheim.

This historically significant town is an integral part of a small agricultural community, located approximately 15 kilometers (9.3 miles) from Groot Brakrivier. Originally established as a mission station and slave quarters for Groot Brakrivier, Kleinvlei has a rich and diverse history.
